MEDINAH TEMPLE INVITES YOU

To the FRANK C. ROUNDY, P. I. P.

Ceremonial, Friday, November 24, 1933

At Which Time

Illustrious Noble JOHN N. SEBRELL

Imperial Potentate A. A. O. N. M. S.

Will be Our Guest

Attest:

SAMUEL H. SMITH, P. P.
Recorder

HYDE W. PERCE
Potentate

Nobles:

I am for Medinah Temple and I am in hearty accord with the ideals of her Nobility. The largest Temple in Shrinedom should be maintained as such and continue to lead and I intend to do all I can to keep Medinah "Out Front."

WILLIAM H. BIED
Chief Rabban

Nobles:

Good business calls for intensive and thorough "go-ahead" tactics—particularly now when times are not so propitious as they have been.

"Go-Ahead" to me means just that, and if activity begets activity, that will be my program, and you can count on me being really active.

HARRY J. GARDINER
Assistant Rabban

Nobles:

Primarily; it is what we give of ourselves in constructive thinking, time, patience, energy, and a good clean vision of our neighbors' intents and actions; ever looking forward to the success of the organization, not the individual, that makes for growth in any fraternity. Again I pledge my active support to Medinah.

CARL A. MILLER
High Priest and Prophet

Nobles:

Medinah will go forward—she will progress—because it is your business and my business to see that just that is done, and I pledge my every effort to that end.

CASE L. GRIFFIS
Oriental Guide

Nobles:

It takes a period of stress and strain to force some of us to take an inventory—to make us check up on ourselves—and this includes not only our personal selves but also our affiliations, fraternal or otherwise. My purpose and policy idea relative to Medinah is "Ever Forward" and I subscribe to that Slogan.

ARTHUR H. VINCENT, P. P.
Treasurer

Nobles:

As long as I stay on the Recorder's job, you can be assured of a 100 per cent effort to function for the best good of Medinah. I love Medinah and cherish her heritage.

SAMUEL H. SMITH, P. P.
Recorder

Nobles:

Medinah is not for today or tomorrow. It is for years to come, and I propose to be active in her welfare problems, now, and I am only too happy to promise a keen, constructive cooperation whether in office or not.

ADOLPH G. VOSS
Captain of the Guard

Nobles:

On Friday, November 24th, 1933, there will be a Ceremonial at the Temple, in honor of our own Past Potentate and Past Imperial Potentate, Frank C. Roundy, and in honoring him, we honor ourselves.

Few Nobles can look backward and visualize the many years of activity and progress as "Our Frank" has seen during his many years of work for Medinah.

In the fullness of his years, his counsel reflects an executive capacity of immeasurable value to us. Long may he live to enjoy the thousands of friends he has made.

Also, at this Ceremonial, we will have as our guest, Illustrious Noble John N. Sebrell, of Norfolk, Va., the Imperial Potentate of the A.A.O.N.M.S. on his official visit to our Oasis.

It is, therefore, very essential that we give both of these honored Nobles, a typical Medinah greeting, which means a filled Temple of happy, fun loving Shriners.

Times may be hard and the going may be rough, but Medinah is out for a wholesome, good Ceremonial and it is your Potentate's hope that you will be here to help us have a splendid time and drive away dull care.

Be sure to wear a big smile under your Fez.

Yours in the Faith,

Hyde W. Pence

Potentate

Biographical Sketch of

ILLUSTRIOUS NOBLE JOHN N. SEBRELL

Imperial Potentate, A. A. O. N. M. S.

The Imperial Potentate was born at Sebrell, in Southampton County, Virginia, on June 15th, 1871. He was educated in Randolph-Macon College and at the University of Virginia, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Laws at the latter institution in 1894 and has practiced his profession continuously since that time.

Since early manhood he has been prominent in professional and civic life, having served as Mayor of his home town, Courtland, Virginia, and was for some time President of the City Council of the City of Norfolk. He has served the City of Norfolk as City Attorney since 1929. His public career also includes a service in the General Assembly of Virginia from 1901 to 1904. He is a member of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Bar Association, the Virginia State Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

The Masonic activities of the Imperial Potentate reflect a sustained interest in the fraternity. He was raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason in Courtland Lodge No. 85, A. F. & A. M., in Courtland, Virginia, in 1896, and was Master of that Lodge in 1899, later affiliating with Ruth Lodge No. 89, at Norfolk, Virginia. He received the Chapter Degrees in Mount Nebo Chapter in Suffolk, Virginia, in 1902. Affiliating with Norfolk United Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, at Norfolk, Virginia, he passed through the chairs and was elected High Priest in 1911. Later he became a Charter Member of John Walter Chapter No. 68, of Norfolk, Virginia.

His Knight Templar career began in Grice Commandery No. 16, of Norfolk, in 1903, and he served as an officer for several years, becoming Eminent Commander in 1912. He is also a member of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, holding membership in Auld Consistory at Norfolk, Virginia.

He was created a Noble of the Mystic Shrine in Acca Temple of Richmond, Virginia, on March 23rd, 1903, and is a Charter Member of Khedive Temple at Norfolk, serving as its Potentate in 1912. His connection with the Imperial Council began with his election as a Representative to this body from Acca Temple in Richmond in 1909, at which time he was instrumental in securing a dispensation for Khedive Temple, and has been a Representative to the Imperial Council continuously since that time. He has seen service on various committees of the Imperial Council, and was Chairman of the Committee on Jurisprudence and Laws for several years. The Imperial Potentate was elected an Honorary Member of the Imperial Council in 1918, and an Emeritus Member in 1931. He was elected Imperial Outer Guard of the Imperial Council in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1924, and has been regularly advanced to the position of Imperial Potentate.

The Imperial Potentate is by church affiliation an Episcopalian and a Vestryman in Christ Episcopal Church of Norfolk, Virginia, and has for some time been Senior Warden of this organization. Illustrious Noble Sebrell was married on November 23rd, 1904, to Miss Bessie Rose Prince of Southampton County, Virginia, and has two sons—John N. Sebrell, Jr., and J. Prince Sebrell, both degreemen of the University of Virginia. The former is a practicing attorney in Norfolk, Virginia, and the latter is one of the city's prominent young business men.
